Roueche to Serve as Keynote Speaker for First General Session

Dr. John E. Roueche, nationally recognized community college leader, will be the keynote for the convention's First General Session, scheduled for Monday, November 20. Currently serving as professor and director of the Community College Leadership Program at the University of Texas at Austin, Dr. Roueche also holds the Sid W. Richardson Regents Chair in Community College Leadership. The Texas doctoral program in Community College Leadership is the nation's oldest and has produced more presidents, vice presidents, and deans of American community colleges than any other university graduate program.

Dr. Roueche is a community college graduate (Mitchell Community College, 1958) and received his Ph.D. in higher education administration from The Florida State University in 1964. He has served as a high school history and English teacher, community college dean of students and instructional dean, and faculty member at UCLA and Duke University before joining the Texas faculty.

He has received national recognition for his research, teaching, service, and overall leadership including the 1994 Distinguished Faculty Award from The University of Texas at Austin, the 1988 B. Lamar Johnson Leadership Award from the League for Innovation in the Community College, and the 1986 National Distinguished Leadership Award from the American Association of Community and Junior Colleges. Dr. Roueche received the 1990 National Distinguished Service Award from the National Council for Student Development and the 1994 Distinguished Service Award from the Council of Universities and Colleges. He is listed in Who's Who in the World, Who's Who in America, Contemporary Authors, International Authors and Writers Who's Who, Who's Who in American Education, and Who's Who in the South and Southwest.

Since 1970, Dr. Roueche has spoken to more than 1200 colleges and universities on topics of teaching and leadership excellence. He is the author of 29 books and more than 100 articles and chapters focused on leadership, teaching, and learning in American colleges and universities.

Second General Session to Feature Cuyahoga President Dr. Jerry Sue Thornton

Dr. Jerry Sue Thornton is president of Cuyahoga Community College, the largest community college in Ohio. Since 1992, when Dr. Thornton began her tenure, the College has reallocated resources, restructured and embarked on a Total Quality Management initiative. Cuyahoga serves approximately 26,000 credit and 32,000 non-credit students annually through 77 degree programs and unique services for special population segments.

Committed to the college having a strong community focus, Dr. Thornton serves on many boards including the Greater Cleveland Growth Association, National City Bank, Bearings, Inc., the Greater Cleveland Roundtable, The Urban League of Greater Cleveland, United Way Services, the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum (Cleveland and New York Boards), the Cleveland Bicentennial Commission (Executive Committee), and the Cleveland Foundation.

Dr. Thornton's educational background includes a Ph.D. from the University of Texas at Austin; The Institute for the Management of Lifelong Education, Harvard Graduate School of Education; Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters, College of St. Catharine, St. Paul, Minnesota; an M.A. from Murray State University, Murray, Kentucky; and a B.A. from Murray State University in Murray, Kentucky.

She has received many awards and honors, including AACT outstanding CEO Award in 1981. She holds many professional affiliations, including Alpha Kappa Alpha, and she is great demand as a presenter for international and national and local groups. In addition, she authored has several publications.

Neal Wade To Address Commission on Administration

Scheduled guest speaker for the Monday, November 20 ACA Commission on Administration session is Neal Wade, chief executive officer of the Economic Development Partnership of Alabama, Inc., a non-profit consortium of Alabama's leading companies committed to supporting quality economic development activities.

Wade joined the Partnership in 1991, after serving 13 years with Alabama Power Company. He worked in the company's communications department and for five years served as Director with responsibilities for advertising, media relations, graphics, community relations, and employee communications.

A graduate of Samford University, he grew up in Monroeville, Alabama.

Wade will speak on successful management techniques.

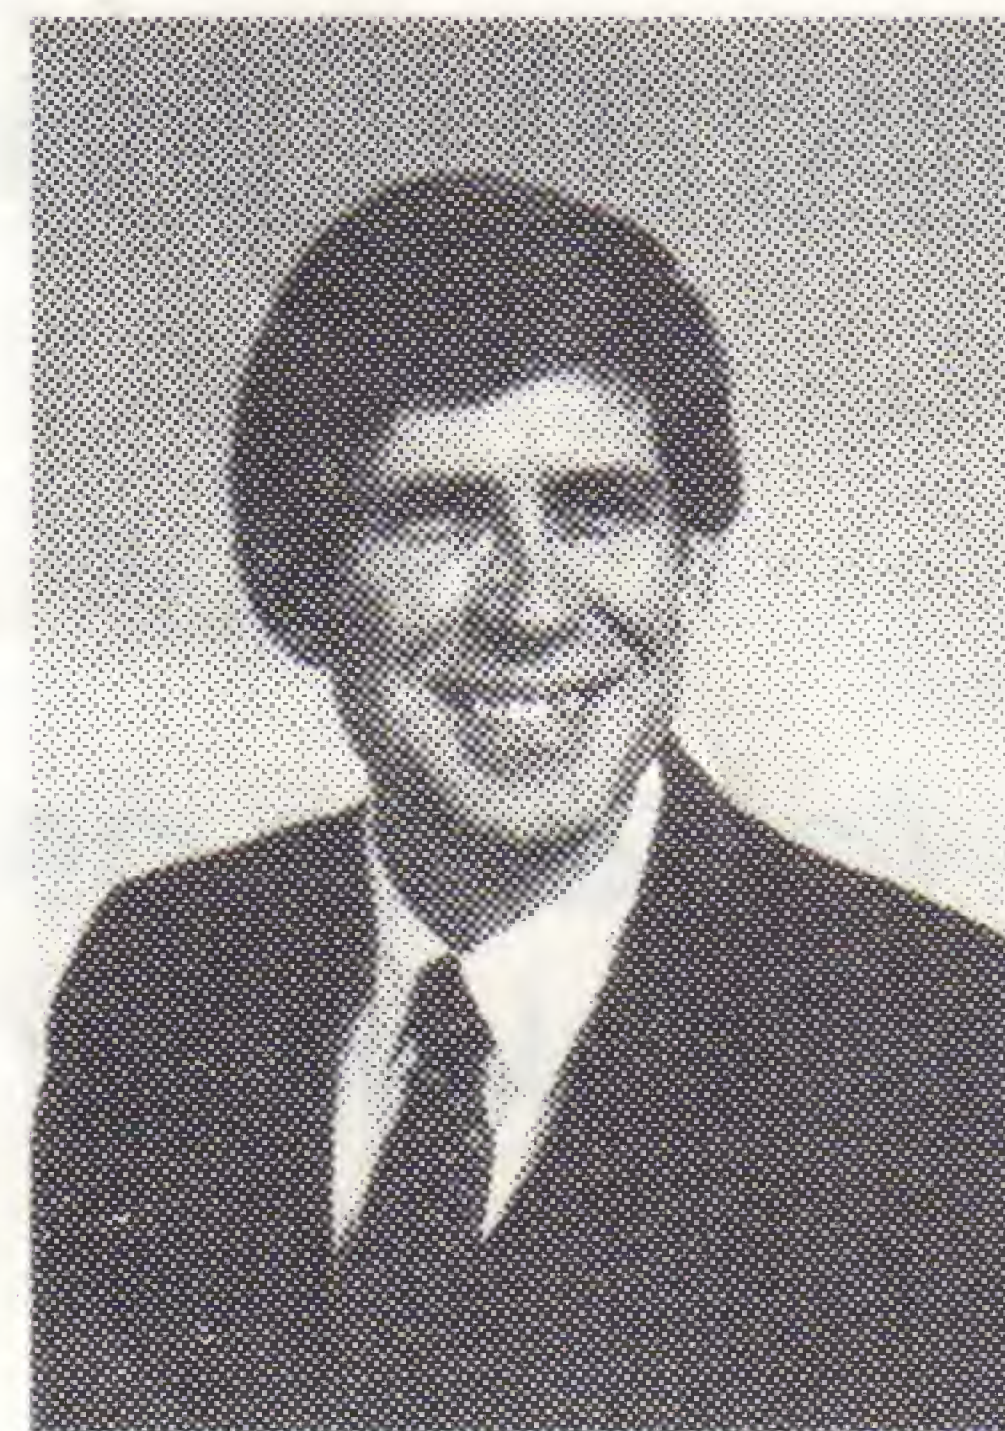

Commission on Faculty to Hear Noted Authority on African American Studies

Birmingham native Dr. Horace Huntley will be the featured speaker for Monday's meeting of the Commission on Faculty.

One of the country's first recipients of a baccalaureate degree in African American Studies, Huntley holds a master's degree in American History from Syracuse University and a Ph.D. degree in History from the University of Pittsburgh. He has taught at the State University of New York, Syracuse University, The University of Maryland Eastern Shore, and The University of Pittsburgh. Presently, he serves as a member of the History department at the University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB), where he developed the minor in African American Studies and for more than a decade has offered a series of courses on the experiences of Africa and of the Diaspora.

Huntley has published several articles, is a contributor to an anthology entitled Labor Divided and just finished a contribution to The Malcolm X Encyclopedia. He also serves as the producer of radio station WATV's talk show, "Open Mike."

Baker to Serve as Featured Speaker for Commission on Support

Dr. Bill Baker, a professional counselor in private practice at Medical Center East Hospital, will speak on the topic "Stress Management"

Principals for Self-Caring" during Monday's Commission on Support meeting.

A Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC) and a clinical member and approved supervisor with the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy (AAMFT), Dr. Baker earned his Ph.D. degree from the University of Nebraska. Since 1970, he has worked with individuals, couples, and families in a wide variety of personal and family issues.

Dr. Baker also is involved in frequent teaching and speaking activities in both community and church settings, has conducted mental health and family life seminars in many states, and has served as a guest lecturer in South Africa. He serves as an assistant professor (adjunct) in the Department of Counseling and Educational Psychology at the University of Montevallo.

Moser to Address Commission on Students

John Moser, president of Leadership Development, Inc., will be the keynote speaker for the Commission on Students. Moser has served as a management consultant to businesses experiencing change, including IBM, AT&T, Marriott Corporation, Federal Express, and BellSouth.

As a member of the Board of Trade, the Economic Development Committee, Birmingham Chamber Quality Committee, Hoover Chamber of Commerce, and the State Quality Board Research Team, Moser is active in the business community. He currently chairs the Alabama Quality Award Team.
